“We offer with joy and thanksgiving what you have first given us – ourselves, our time, and our possessions.”

Time

John Buchanan, a famous Lutheran Minister, gave a sermon titled “Give It All” and said: “I always had a dream that when I am asked to give an accounting of my life to a higher court, it will be like this: ‘So, empty your pockets. What do you have left of your life? Any dreams that were unfulfilled? Any unusual talent that we gave you when you were born that you still have left? Any unsaid compliments or bits of love that you haven’t spread around?’ And I will answer, ‘I’ve nothing to return. I spent everything you gave me. I’m as naked as the day I was born.’”

Time is one of the most precious gifts we have from God. The problem is we never know how much time we have been given. An insightful friend of mine, who is in his later years, says “When I was younger, I had plenty of time and less money. But as I grow older, I have fleeting time and more money. I wished I had managed my time better because unlike money, time spent cannot be regained, money can. Think about how you spend your time with Jesus on his Mission, so that when you are asked to account to that higher court you can say you spent all the time available in service to Christ.

This week you will find your pledge sheets in your mailbox. Please take it home with you and return the completed form on or before November 14th.
