Brought to you by the North American Lutheran Seminary

Led by Rev. Brad Hales

$20 to Register

Course Description: The fuel of the local church is relationships. Whether it's the relationship with Jesus, the relationship with other believers, or the relationship with the community, we need to continually build and strengthen these connections in order to more effectively share Christ with others. Come and learn how we can build these key relationships through our vocations (calls) so that they may be used for outreach and ministry.
